10. What information do you provide to consumers on how and where to return covered electronic devices that are labeled with your name or brand label?

Our company works with E-World Online to provide electronics recycling in Michigan. E-World Online provides consumers with information on how and where to return covered electronic devices on its website: www.e-worldonline.com. The site has a map of the United States and consumers can find information on the E-World Online program in Michigan by clicking on the state of Michigan on the map. The E-World Online website lists all brands participating in the mailback program in Michigan.

The E-World Online take back program provides collection locations for consumers who wish to recycle CED's. All brands of CED's are accepted at no charge to consumers at all recycling collection locations.

11. How do you provide information to consumers on how and where to return covered electronic devices?

In addition to the information on the E-World Online MITS program provided on the Michigan page on the E-World Online website as described in Question 10 above, a consumer can access the Michigan DNRE Electronics Takeback Program via the E-World Online website. If consumers have questions about how and where to recycle in general or are seeking sites to recycle CED's that are not labeled with our brand label, they can contact E-World Online staff for details or access the Michigan DNRE. Consumers can also call the recycler directly at (866) 447-5177 for details and recycling instructions
